~~[PROPOSED]~~ STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Hon. William H. Alsup

1       1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2              Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 3              confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure 4              and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, 5              the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective 6              Order. The parties acknowledge that this Stipulated Protective Order does not confer blanket 7              protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 8              disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential 9              treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in 10             Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential 11             information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 12             standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under 13             seal.

14       2. DEFINITIONS

15       2.1     Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 16             information or items under this Stipulated Protective Order.

17       2.2     “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 18             generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of 19             Civil Procedure 26(c).

20       2.3     Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well 21             as their support staff).

22       2.4     Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it 23             produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

24       2.5     Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium 25             or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, 26             transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to 27             discovery in this matter.

28       2.6     Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to

1 the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 2 consultant in this action.

3       2.7     House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House 4 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

5       2.8     Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 6 entity not named as a Party to this action.

7       2.9     Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action 8 but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on 9 behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

10      2.10    Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 11 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

12      2.11    Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery 13 Material in this action.

14      2.12    Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services 15 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, 16 storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

17      2.13    Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 18 "CONFIDENTIAL."

19      2.14    Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 20 Producing Party.

21      3.     SCOPE

22      The protections conferred by this Stipulated Protective Order cover not only Protected 23 Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected 24 Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any 25 testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected 26 Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulated Protective Order do not cover the 27 following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a 28 Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a

1 result of publication not involving a violation of this Stipulated Protective Order, including 2 becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the 3 Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a 4 source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the 5 Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement 6 or order.

7 4. DURATION

8 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 9 Stipulated Protective Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in 10 writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) 11 dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment 12 herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of 13 this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 14 pursuant to applicable law.

15 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 17 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Stipulated Protective Order 18 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 19 standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 20 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the 21 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 22 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Stipulated Protective Order.

23 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 24 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily 25 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 26 other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

27 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 28 protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties

1 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

2       5.2     Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Stipulated 3 Protective Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 4 ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Stipulated 5 Protective Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

6              Designation in conformity with this Stipulated Protective Order requires:

7                  (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 8 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party 9 affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion 10 or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 11 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

12              A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not 13 designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would 14 like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made 15 available for inspection shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has 16 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 17 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Stipulated Protective Order. Then, 18 before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” 19 legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on 20 a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) 21 (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

22                  (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 23 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 24 proceeding, all protected testimony except as follows: confidential treatment may be invoked by 25 designating specific pages, subject matter, and/or lines as “Confidential” on the record at the 26 deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, or by serving such designations within 21 days 27 after receipt of the transcript of the deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings in which the 28 designations are made. All deposition or other pretrial or trial proceedings transcripts shall be treated

1 as Confidential for 15 days following receipt of the transcript, unless otherwise agreed to by the 2 Parties or ordered by the Court.

3 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other 4 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or 5 containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a 6 portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent 7 practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

8       5.3     Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 9 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's 10 right to secure protection under this Stipulated Protective Order for such material. Upon timely 11 correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the 12 material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

13       6.     CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

14       6.1     Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 15 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality 16 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, 17 or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a 18 confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original 19 designation is disclosed.

20       6.2     Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process 21 by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each 22 challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must 23 recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph 24 of the Stipulated Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith 25 and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of 26 communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the 27 Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not 28 proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to 1 reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the 2 chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only 3 if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 4 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

5         6.3     Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 6 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Civil 7 Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the 8 initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process 9 will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a 10 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 11 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a 12 motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall 13 automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 14 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 15 good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any 16 portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a 17 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 18 requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

19         The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating 20 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 21 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions.
22 Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to 23 retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question 24 the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court 25 rules on the challenge.

26         7.     ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

27         7.1     Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 28 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,

1 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to 2 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Stipulated Protective Order.
3 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 4 section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

5 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 6 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Stipulated 7 Protective Order.

8       7.2     Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by 9 the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 10 information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

11           (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees 12 of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for 13 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is 14 attached hereto as Exhibit A;

15           (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving 16 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 17 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

18           (c) Experts (as defined in this Stipulated Protective Order) of the Receiving Party to 19 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 20 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

21           (d) the court and its personnel;

22           (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and 23 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 24 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); 25           (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 26 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), 27 unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed 28 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately

1 bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this 2 Stipulated Protective Order.

3 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 4 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

5 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
6 LITIGATION

7 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 8 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party 9 must:

10 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a 11 copy of the subpoena or court order;

12 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 13 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 14 Stipulated Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective 15 Order; and

16 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 17 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

18 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena 19 or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” 20 before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has 21 obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and 22 expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these 23 provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to 24 disobey a lawful directive from another court.

25 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS 26 LITIGATION

27 (a) The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order are applicable to information produced 28 by a Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by

1 Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this 2 Stipulated Protective Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-3 Party from seeking additional protections.

4 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-5 Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 6 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

7 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or 8 all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

9 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in 10 this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the 11 information requested; and 12 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

13 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 15 Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely 16 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 17 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by 18 the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 19 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

20 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

21 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 22 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, 23 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized 24 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) 25 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 26 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to 27 Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

28 ///

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court. The inadvertent production of any privileged or otherwise protected or exempted information, as well as the production of information without an appropriate designation of privilege, shall not be deemed a waiver or impairment of any claim of privilege or protection, including, but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege, the protection afforded to attorney work product materials, or the subject matter thereof, or the confidential nature of any such information and any related material.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed to prohibit the parties from agreeing to modify any provision of this Protective Order. Nor shall anything in this Stipulated Protective Order, or any party's compliance herewith, be construed as a waiver of any party's rights under applicable law.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Stipulated Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Stipulated Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the 1 public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected

2 Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal 3 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant 4 to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the 5 Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to 6 protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant 7 to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information 8 in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

9       13. FINAL DISPOSITION

10           Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each 11 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
12 As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 13 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether 14 the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 15 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party)
16 by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material 17 that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 18 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 19 Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all 20 pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 21 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant 22 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies 23 that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Stipulated Protective Order as set 24 forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

25       14. PROTECTIVE ORDER REMAINS IN FORCE

26           This Stipulated Protective Order shall become effective upon execution by the parties, 27 even before the court has approved the Stipulated Protective Order. The Stipulated Protective 28 Order, as-executed by the Partiers, shall remain in force and effect until ~~modified, superseded, or~~

1 terminated by consent of the Parties or by order of the court one year from judgment or dismissal of 2 the action.

3 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

19 United States District Judge

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, [print or type full name], of [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in the case of Jeremy Stanfield v. Tawkify, Inc., Case No: 3:20-cv-07000-WHA. I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

15 I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of 16 _____ [print or type full address and telephone number] as
